

James M. Lewis,
Contractor & Builder.
CLOVERPORT, KY.

Estimates furnished on application.

Robert E. Woods,
ATTORNEY AT LAW,
Room 47 Trust Building,
LOUISVILLE, KY.

LEE BISHOP,
CONSTABLE
HARDINSBURG DISTRICT.

All business entrusted to my hands given prompt and careful attention. Notes and accounts collected and prompt returns made. Send me your business.

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.
WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1893.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

You will find butter at Sulzer's. Dr. Rafferty went to Louisville Saturday.

Doughnuts every Saturday at the City Bakery.

Pickle pigs feet with the stockings off.—Sulzer's.

Sweet apple cider just from the press at Riedel & Co's.

You can always find the most comfortable shoes at Sulzer's.

Born to the wife of Lee Vandegrift Oct. 31st, a fine 8 pound girl.

HANDS WANTED.—A lot of good hands wanted to wear our new gloves.—Sulzer's.

Miss Eula Dowden, of Brandenburg, is in the city, the guest of Miss Veva Miller.

Dr. R. L. Newsom has moved into his handsome new residence on Second street.

Misses Tisha and Lizzie Hall have returned from a visit to their brothers at Webster.

House wanted.—A wooden house wanted this week to furnish new carpets for—Sulzer's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Pierce, of Louisville, were in the city last week the guests of relatives.

Place your dollar where it buys the most, that is a sound financial rule, and it suggests Sulzer's store.

WANTED.—1,000 men to call this week to get a pick of our new clothing.—Call between 7 to 12 a. m.—1 to 8 p. m.

Mr. Jas. A. Demaree, the founder of the "Knights of Honor" died in Louisville last week at the age of forty-one.

Frank Peyton, of the Falls of Rough, and J. W. Hendrick, of Hardinsburg, returned from the World's Fair last Thursday.

Master Hubert Piggott, son of W. J. Piggott, Bewleyville, fell from a wagon one day last week and broke his collar bone.

Miss Lillie LaHeist went to Louisville Saturday to attend Miss Ella Richardson's debut party, which took place Monday evening.

You will need warm clothes this winter, for Hicks says this will be a real old time winter. Examine our all wool blankets.—Sulzer's.

Morton Watkins, of the Cincinnati Tribune, one of Cincinnati's best papers, was here last week visiting his brother, Dr. S. S. Watkins.

Unconditional repeal of the high-priced buying clause is the rule with Sulzer's in purchasing goods. His customers get the benefit of the rule.

The perfection of styles—the top notch of quality—the matchless in make—a comfort to you in a cold, chilly day—a comfortable cloak.—Sulzer's.

Cold wave coming—that is what our new overcoats and cloaks are—Get a comfort that will be a comfort and keep you comfortable all during this winter.—Sulzer's.

We make men comfortable who come to us—they feel like coming again. They do come again and keep coming for some of those warm comfortable suits of clothes.—Sulzer's.

W. W. Weatherholt sent to this office last week a white California winter radish, which weighed 12½ pounds. He also sent a very fine sample of red Irish potatoes raised from the seed.

That word comfort, has carried joy to many thousand hearts—it still will carry to many hearts more good words of cheer—buy one of our warm overcoats and you will carry comfort on your back.—Sulzer's.

Messrs. J. P. Cowing, of Cleveland, O., and F. P. Haygood, of Irvington, were in the city Saturday inspecting the Clover creek bridge. Mr. Cowing, who is agent for the King Bridge Co., reports the bridge in fairly good condition.

Our shoe man has fitted—he had fitted all day Saturday and kept it up to a late hour Saturday night. Bring in your feet and he will keep up the fits. You will have a fit also, but it will be a pleasure to you to have a good fit. No matter how big or small the feet he goes into fit.—Sulzer's.

J. V. Culley, who has been here for a couple of weeks visiting his children and old friends, went to Irvington Saturday with his daughter-in-law, Mrs. D. C. Culley, to visit a few days in that section. He will return to his home in Florida about the 12th, of Nov. Vic says he enjoyed his visit immensely and had a good time with old friends.

Readers when you are preparing to come to town to do some trading, just pick up your home paper, glance at the advertising columns and see who wants your trade. We'll guarantee that if you trade with those who recognize the local papers as an incentive to the business, they will give you money. The man who advertises certainly has inducements to offer you or he wouldn't ask you to call and see him before buying.

Rubber shoes over two feet at Sulzer's. Grind, grind, grind! goes Sulzer's trade mill.

Eggs when everybody else is out at Sulzer's.

Miss Forrie Hardin, of Holt, was in the city yesterday.

If you want pure fresh candles, call at the City Bakery.

P. P. Archey & Co. have started up their distillery at Ekron.

A pair of flexible shoe laces free with every pair of shoes from $3 up.—Sulzer's.

Jack Frost is here you had better get a pair of those bargain shoes at Sulzer's now.

Joe F. Jones has been appointed postmaster at Rock Vale vice J. J. Hall, resigned.

You can't wind up those old Waterbury socks any longer. Get a yarn pair at Sulzer's.

The ratio of 20 to 1 is about right at Sulzer's store—twenty bargains for every one who calls.

Mr. Geo. H. Gregory, who has been confined to his bed for several weeks, was able to be out Monday.

The best is not too good for you and in the line of overcoats Sulzer's always sell the best for the least money.

Look—inspect and compare and you will find that our stock of clothing is complete—we can fit you.—Sulzer's.

Miss Maggie Bowmer after a very pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. John Burks of Henderson, returned home Saturday.

If you are hungry you need comforting for the inner man. Our grocery department has the stuff to do it.—Sulzer's.

Rev. J. B. Bolling, of the Christian church, preached in this city Sunday night at the residence of Mrs. Sallie Yeager.

Autumn has come and the Autumn leaves fall, but that does not keep us from selling shoes at low prices.—Sulzer's.

Mr. Courtney Duncan, of Louisville, was in the city Thursday to attend the funeral of his grand-father, Capt. P. V. Duncan.

Mike Reardon's old mul. which he has been riding to town for the last thirty years died last week at the ripe old age of thirty-five.

The little ad in the News last week found Mrs. Meador's satchel. Rev. Shelby picked it up and seeing the ad returned it to F. Fraize.

PERSONAL.—The young lady saw standing on the street Sunday with an old wrap on can find a new line at Sulzer's to select from.

Mrs. J. W. Richardson, of Brandenburg, and Miss Forrie Hardin, of Holt, were the pleasant guests of Mrs. Jno. D. Babbage yesterday.

Mrs. Frank Seifried went to Tell City Wednesday to attend the funeral of her brother-in-law, Mr. Hebbel, who died very suddenly Tuesday.

Miss Ella Porter and Etta Mullen and Messrs Henry Yeager and George Mullen went to Lewisport yesterday to spend a few days nutting.

Do you love to dress well? If you do then come to us. It will be a pleasure to us to show you through our big stock of fall dress goods.—Sulzer's.

Wanted.—2,226,808 people to call and bring their feet with them and see our shoe man have fits—fits at 7-12 a. m. and 1 to 8 p. m.—Free to everybody.

The man in the moon has a hump on his back—but the man in cow—heel got a hump on him to get to Sulzer's to get some good warm comfortable underwear Saturday.

Thos. McGavock shipped to Louisville last week 16 head of hogs that netted him $218.48. They were of his own raising. Tom says it is the first time he ever struck the market right.

The following young ladies went to Holt yesterday to spend the day with Miss Nellie Burks. Misses Maggie Bowmer, Allene and Nannie Murray, Lula Owen and Elizabeth Skillman.

Messdames Frame, H. Walden and Collins and Misses Jennie Hubbard, Gertrude Collins, of Newburg, Ind., and Blanche Frank, of Tobinsport, Ind., who have been spending some time at Chicago and the World's Fair, returned home last week.

It is a comfort to crawl under a good warm comfort in a cold weather. It will be a comfort to you to know you have one and a comfort to you to know you took our advice and laid in a supply of comforts for the long winter months to keep you comfortable and warm.—Sulzer's.

Ice City, North Pole, Nov. 27th, 1892. (via Grinneland and Uppernavic.) Special Sulzer's, Cloverport, Ky. U. S. A.—Left to-day, will be in your city in a short time. Please tell the children I will leave my toys with you for distribution this year.

P. S.—Save my wife a package of Fleischman's yeast.

Dr. Cottrell will deliver his two famous lectures, "Discounted Ministries or The Philosophy of True Life" and an "Hour's Talk About The Boys and Girls," at Glendene Friday, Nov. 17th and Saturday, Nov. 18. These will be a rare treat for the people of that neighborhood and they should not fail to hear him. The proceeds of the lectures go to liquidating the debt on the new school building at that place.

Sulzers are always up to some new scheme to keep before the public. Manager Nolte, when he sees a good thing goes right into it and pushes it through. The latest scheme now on foot is Sulzer's Free Show which is traveling through Breckenridge, Hancock and Meade counties giving a free show at every school house.

Mr. Ed Gregory, the advertising man for the house, has charge of the show; and wherever it goes it attracts big attention. Every school house is crowded and in some places the crowd cannot get into the house. The show is free. Everybody goes and has a fine time then they go to Sulzer's for their fall goods. Look out little folks, Sulzer's Free Show.—Hawesville Plaindealer.

Those shoes fit nice, where did you get them? Sulzer's.

Dan Sweeney, of Victoria, was in the city yesterday.

Ben Haynes has been on the sick list for several days.

Several communications were unavoidably crowded out this week.

New pickles, kraut, mince meat and pigs feet at C. H. Riedel & Co's.

Born, Oct. 13th, to the wife of Thos. McGavock, a girl, the sixth and last.

Boys! boys! boys! Don't fail to get a pair of those bargain boots at Sulzer's.

As the mercury begins to drop, the prices on fall goods at Sulzer's follow suit.

Miss Katie Smith and Master Will Duncan, of Holt, were in the city Thursday.

W. H. Robbins and wife, of Sample, were in town last Wednesday visiting relatives.

Master Wolverton Hall, of Webster, is visiting his grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hall.

Miss Eva Carrigan, Miss Childs and Mr. Harry Bell, Guston, went to Louisville Monday.

Mr. Pierce was very much better last night and he is thought now to be in a fair way to recover.

Mrs. H. A. Miller, of Ashville, N. C., was visiting her sister, Mrs. Dr. S. S. Watkins last week.

Mrs. Brown Helm, of Stephensport, was a passenger on the train Thursday night from Louisville.

Miss Mable White, an accomplished young lady, of Travis, Mich., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. G. Harris.

Boards wanted.—A lot of good boards to kick if their landlady don't buy her groceries from us.—Sulzer's.

Jack Trent, of Brandenburg, went to Louisville Saturday. He says he is nearly cured of his old malady, the piles.

Death of Capt. Philo V. Duncan.

The community was shocked by the death of Capt. P. V. Duncan on last Wednesday, the 25th, of October, 1893.

He and his son, Mr. Henry V. Duncan, were driving in the country beyond Mr. John McGavock's farm, and while descending a hill, one of the backing straps broke, frightening the horse which suddenly ran away.

Mr. Henry Duncan was first thrown out without injury, but Captain Duncan remained in the buggy, until he was thrown across the wheel and so seriously injured that he died the next day.

Captain Duncan was a prominent figure in Cloverport for many years. He came here from Hardinsburg sometime in the forties, without a dollar, and entered business, and for many years was a merchant and tobacconist on a large scale until recent years when age had advanced so far as to somewhat cripple his energies. Latterly his business operations were partly curtailed.

He was for a part of his business career engaged in steamboating. He ran in the Louisville and Evansville trade the steamer W. A. Eaves, then the Scioto, both excellent packets. He built the "big" Grey Eagle, one of the finest, if not the finest boat, from this trade. He demonstrated his energy and intelligence that the little would support a daily line of first class boats, which led to the formation of the Louisville and Evansville Packet Company which has been in existence for over thirty years, and has successfully maintained good boats until the present day.

Capt. Duncan was untiring in energy and quick and bold in his conceptions. He was ever ready in his younger days to lead and aid in all public undertakings. His life was a useful one, and many survive him who were recipients of warm and active sympathy from his generous heart and hand.

He was a faithful and active member of the Methodist church, and during his whole career he stood by his church in darkness and prosperity, never once faltering in his devotion and faith. He died as he had lived, sustained by the religion he so long professed.

He journeyed through life with the woman he had married in his youth, in whom he trusted, and who sympathized with and aided him in every vicissitude of fortune. She survives him enfeebled by age and accident.

He was buried from the church where he had so long worshipped, the funeral services conducted by Rev. Dr. Cottrell.

Mr. Duncan was born at Troy, Ind., and was 73 years old last August.

CLIFTON MILLS.

If you want to swap watches call on or address Ned Cary.

Mrs. Mattie Dewitt, (nee Wheeler,) of Nebraska, is visiting relatives here.

Mr. Will Board, of Ekron, was in the neighborhood Sunday, the guest of his best girl.

Mr. Alf Payne, of Bewleyville, was visiting relatives in this vicinity Saturday and Sunday.

We had expected to have some wedding news by this time from our little town, but none yet.

We have no voting place here, but we can all step up to Webster and vote for Gross or some one else.

There has been a series of meetings for the past week at this place, conducted by Rev. Hook, Bolds and St. Clair.

Our jovial blacksmith, J. M. Fitch and C. Hadlock have been repairing and painting the Walnut Grove church.

T. B. Henderson and daughter, Green Claycomb and family and others, of Webster, attended church here Sunday.

As it has been some time since we saw anything from this place, I will drop a few lines to the News, but will say nothing about how hard it rained the other night, nor describe and locate this town, but it is on this side of the creek anyway.

FOR DYSPEPSIA.
Indigestion and stomach disorders take DR. J. C. BOWMER'S DYSPEPSIA CURE.
All dealers keep it, 25¢ per bottle. Beware of cheap imitations and avoid all imitations.

TAKE A WALK OR A RIDE

As soon as possible and drop in on us. We want to show you the most complete stock of Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing in the city, and at such low prices as will agreeably surprise you. Headquarters for heavy, medium and light-weight Overcoats, Mackintoshes, Rubbers and everything in the way of Wraps at all prices. Come and see us between 7 and 7, and on Saturdays we will wait on you till 11 p. m.

Julius Winter & Co.,
CORNER THIRD AND MARKET STREETS
"WHITE CORNER."
LOUISVILLE, KY.

GUSTON.

Miss Blanche Jolly is over at the Windy city, seeing the wind-up of the Fair.

Born to the wife of Charley Anderson, on the night of the 25th inst., a boy, eleven pounds.

Mrs. G. W. Smith went to the city last Saturday to visit her daughter, Miss Laura, who lives there.

The attendance at the Wathen sale last Thursday was very small owing to the inclemency of the weather.

Mrs. Richard Shacklett, from below Brandenburg, visited her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jesse Ashcraft, of Sandy Hill.

Miss Ree Washington made Miss Eva Carrigan a short visit last week. Come again Miss Ree when you can remain longer.

Mrs. T. E. Ditto with her two little children, joined Mr. Ditto in Louisville Tuesday. Mr. Ditto and family will be in the city this winter.

Misses Emily and Ellen Munford have returned from Chicago. Miss Ellen having been over there six weeks, thus breaking the long stay visit record over any who have gone from this county.

P. S.—Say, will that Brandenburg correspondent please issue some small dictionaries and send one along with each issue of this paper, so we may be able to "catch on" to those jaw-breakers in each letter?

We have in our town two Kentucky wonders in the shape of young negro men, who are never known to take a drink of whisky and are very steady and honorable boys. Their names are Henry and Harry Garner and I think are an honor to the colored race.

A young lady of this community is the happy recipient of a very handsome and latest style solid Morocco back Bible, and we will venture the assertion that the donor never 8 (Pent) 8 (Tuff) on a gift that will be appreciated more than the young lady does this one.

Dr. John Hardin, of Brandenburg, made a tour through this section and over toward Big Spring and Constantine, in the interest of the Ninth Street Tobacco Warehouse, Louisville. Dr. Hardin is a good man, representing a good house and is sure to make friends and business wherever he goes.

If one who has never been and wants to hear World's Fair discussed and described from "een to een", should just make a small visit to the Munford mansion and there, yes, there they will hear and almost actually think they have seen the great show. Erskine says he would not take $500 for his trip. Quite an investment.

Mr. J. W. Lewis and son Lawrence and Mr. Ed. Y. Peak, of Louisville, spent several days at Mr. Billy Withers' near Hardinsburg last week hunting. They brought back two quail, the one looked like it had been killed with a club and the other had been caught by a dog, they gave the two birds to Mr. R. J. Patterson, who has been unwell for some time. They say they had had luck.

GARFIELD.

Jack Frost has made his appearance. Quite a crowd attended the speaking here last Wednesday.

Dr. Eastman and mother returned from Muldraugh Sunday.

Mrs. Minnie Bell, of Wayne county, is here visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. Robert Bell, of Lebanon Junction, is here visiting relatives and friends.

Rev. H. C. Hook will preach at Pleasant Grove, Second Sunday eve in November.

Mrs. Lucy Johnson, who has been quite ill with inflammatory rheumatism, is slowly improving.

Mr. Albert Hambrick, of Meade county, was here last week shaking hands with old friends.

Miss Flora Butler, of West View, was the guest of Miss Josie Driskell and sister last Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Josie Driskell, who has been visiting her brother and family at West View, returned home Saturday.

Mr. Henry Harper and family were passengers on the west-bound train Wednesday. Mr. Harper went to Texas two years ago to try his luck, but evidently thinks there's no place like Kentucky after all.

If you don't see what you want in our local columns, read what our correspondents have to say. They cover the field.

SAMPLE.

Class meeting next Sunday.

Mr. Emmett Elder, of Mooleyville, was in town Sunday.

Miss Ollie McCoy went to Cloverport Saturday.

Arthur Robbins is quite sick of pneumonia fever.

Miss Lena Gilliland returned Sunday night from Chicago and the World's Fair.

Mr. Lige Gibson of Cloverport, was in town Sunday, guest of Miss Lucy Jolly.

Misses Annie Bennett and Lillie McQuady visited Mrs. T. E. Elder, of near Mooleyville, Saturday and Sunday, and attended church at Flint Island.

Tom Brodie and Mrs. Barrie Gilliland, of Chenault, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. J. W. Mattingly.

Mrs. Lula Connor was visiting in Rome Saturday and Sunday.

Buddie Adkins is quite ill. Dr. J. Imer, the attending physician, pronounces it the "milk sick."

RAYMOND.

Mrs. Bushyself attended church at Clifton Sunday night.

Misses Dee-Basham and Lilly Avit and Mr. Willie Arnold visited Miss Nettie Cushman Sunday.

Mrs. Bill Shaw, Mrs. Reese French and Mrs. Head were the guests of Mrs. Lute Duttschke Saturday.

Mrs. Effie French, of Sinking Creek, was the guest of Miss Nellie Shaw Saturday.

Mr. Edgar Adkisson is blessed with another fine boy. This is only six for Edgar. He is intending to help the Democratic party out.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Claycomb visited Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adkisson Monday.

Married at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. Graham. Miss Georgia Graham to Mr. Filmore Johnston, Oct. 26th by Rev. J. C. Argabright.

ON Exhibition TO-DAY!

CLOAKS! CLOAKS!

Very latest styles and the largest variety ever shown
here.

YOUR CLOSEST INSPECTION DESIRED!

Come early and get first choice.
Prices Reasonable.

W. H.
BOWMER & SON.
Cloverport, Ky.

When Talking Through His Hat

A man is not likely to be convincing, but when we assure you that we are Always Talking

Through Our Shoes

You will recognize the value to us of having our goods so made that they will speak for themselves. That's what ours do—and they do not squeak, either.

"Sensible Shoes."

CLOVERPORT, KY.

Cloaks, Capes and Shawls

Combined with style, price and quality, is the cause of our Garments m
with such universal favor
Will receive this week a new lot of Ladies' Capes.
We invite all to come and see.

'Tis sweet to love, but, oh, how bitter!
To love a girl whose CLOAK don't fit her.

B. F. BEARD & CO.

HARDINSBURG, KY.

J. C. BOURNE, J. M. HARPER, DANIEL BROOKS

BOURNE, HARPER, BROOKS & CO.,

Commission Salesmen of Live Stock

CATTLE, HOGS AND SHEEP.

BOURBON STOCK YARDS

LOUISVILLE, KY.

MANHOOD RESTORED! "NERVE SIDS" guaranteed to cure all nervous diseases, such as Weakness, Loss of Power, Headache, Wakefulness, Loss of Memory, Nervousness, all kinds of loss of power in Generative Organs of either sex, caused by over exertion,